

Please do not weaken the No CALL system we have. It is better now, but not perfect. Do not let the telemarketers have their way. If you feel like you have to let them call us, please send me your home phone numbers and what time you eat dinner, and I will call you then to express my thoughts.

Thanks.